

Notice of Data Security Incident

MAC Pizza Management (“MAC Pizza”) recently discovered an incident that may have involved certain individuals’ personal information. On April 17, 2023, MAC Pizza discovered that it was the victim of a cyber-attack. Upon identifying the issue, MAC Pizza promptly began an investigation, notified law enforcement, and worked to secure its systems. MAC Pizza also engaged a forensic security firm to assist with its investigation and confirm the security of its computer systems. The forensic investigation determined that an unknown, unauthorized third party accessed MAC Pizza’s computer systems and may have accessed and acquired certain documents from MAC Pizza’s systems as a result of the incident.

Although MAC Pizza does not have evidence that individuals’ personal information has been misused, MAC Pizza is notifying individuals whose information could have been involved in the incident. The incident may have involved unauthorized access and acquisition of personal information, including individuals’ names and Social Security numbers. The information could also include individuals’ driver’s license numbers if they were provided to MAC Pizza.

On June 26, 2023, MAC Pizza began sending written notifications to individuals whose personal information may have been involved in the incident for whom it has contact information.

Notified individuals should refer to the notice they will receive in the mail regarding steps they can take to protect themselves. As a precautionary measure, notified individuals should remain vigilant to protect against potential fraud and/or identity theft by, among other things, reviewing their account statements and monitoring credit reports closely. If individuals detect any suspicious activity on an account, they should promptly notify the financial institution or company with which the account is maintained. They should also promptly report any fraudulent activity or any suspected incidents of identity theft to proper law enforcement authorities, including the police and their state’s attorney general. Notified individuals may also wish to review the tips provided by the Federal Trade Commission (“FTC”) on fraud alerts, security/credit freezes and steps that they can take to avoid identity theft. For more information and to contact the FTC, please visit www.ftc.gov/idtheft or call 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338). Notified individuals may also contact the FTC at: Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580.

MAC Pizza values the trust placed in us to protect individuals’ privacy, takes our responsibility to safeguard personal information seriously, and apologizes for any inconvenience or concern this incident might cause. Additional information is available by phone at (979) 695-9912 or you can contact us at: MAC Pizza Management, 12633 State Highway 30, College Station, TX, 77845.
